

Water Storage

New Construction Services

water

- Population growth and system analysis studies:

Determines the most feasible tank capacity and geographic location.

- Preliminary opinion of cost:

Aids in selection of tank style utilizing client preferences, maintenance costs, and construction cost considerations.

wastewater

- Plans and Specifications:

CE prepares detailed site design and bid packages and assists with project bidding and contract award.

stormwater

- Construction Review:

While under construction, the project is routinely inspected to ensure conformance with project plans and specifications.

Inspection Services

civil/ site

- Evaluation:

General inspections include paint, mechanical and corrosion evaluations.

development

- Recommendations:

Suggestions will include recommendations for repairs and plans for maintaining supply to all customers during repairs.

roadways

- Cost analysis:

An opinion of cost for repairs will be prepared with up-to-date pricing information along with an estimated project timeline.

bridges

Rehabilitation Services

Chambliss Engineering, LLC

356 Highway 82 W
Prattville, AL 36067

tel: 334.491.2323

fax: 334.491.2324

clayde@chamblissengineering.com

- Permitting:

CE obtains all necessary permitting from local authorities for general purposes or lead containment activities.

- Bid package:

A typical tank rehab bid package includes detailed specifications including a paint system and drawings necessary for repairs.

- Construction Review:

While repairs are being made, CE will conduct routine inspections to ensure compliance with project specifications and local authorities.

